

Oklahoma Negroes Are Sent to Jail In Chains

NO DEAD AND FOUR WOUNDED
AS RESULT OF RACE RIOT
AT COWETA, OKLA.

Muskogee, Okla., Oct. 23—Two and four desperately wounded state militia company on duty among local authorities in search of the homes of suspected negroes were arrested, chased and captured to jail at Wagoner. The net results today of yesterday's race rioting at Coweta, a town one-third of the population of which is negro, twenty miles north of Muskogee, and the aftermath to the death of John F. Beavers, city attorney, shot to death by Ed Suddeth, a negro, in City Marshal Kuhl engaged in pistol duel with Ed Rue, a negro and for carrying concealed weapons.

Ed Suddeth, a negro, rescued from being by the authorities only to be riddled with bullets as the author of the attempted to take him from an automobile.

Carmen Oliver, white, wounded in general fighting in which five or more shots were exchanged after Beavers died.

Stellar Thompson, white, wounded in the same battle.

Ed Rue, who resisted arrest and other negroes defied the city marshal and his hastily impressed citizens pose, probably fatally wounded.

John R. Thomas, Attacked

John R. Thomas, white, a railroad foreman attacked early to day by a mob of negroes his leg shattered by bullets and his unconscious form left for dead beside the railroad tracks, probably fatally hurt.

When news of the troops coming word early today among the negroes of Coweta and the surrounding country villages—some of the latter almost wholly populated by negroes—had prevailed and City Marshal Kuhl, talking over the telephone said that no further trouble was expected. Later, however, further and more stringent measures were taken when the authorities assisted by soldiers, began searching the homes of negro suspects and this news spread presumably causing the arrival later in the day of strange negroes in considerable numbers.

White men from the outlying districts also began to arrive in Coweta.

Herman Rue, white, was halted, however near the outskirts of Coweta by two negroes carrying rifles. After searching Rue the negroes permitted him to proceed.

Negroes May Resist

Rumors are abroad that the negroes will resist further search of negro houses by the militia and that by the announcement that the troopers will brook no resistance and that bullets will be their argument.

DISTURBING REPORTS

Coweta, Okla., Oct. 23—While quiet prevails in Coweta tonight disturbing reports of the gathering of armed negroes and threats to the safety of Coweta come from the negro element of Ed Bird, six miles distant.

County officials who passed through the settlement late today reported the negroes many of whom deserted Coweta today, in an ugly mood.

Militiamen and heavily armed citizens patrolled the streets here to night and a military cordon has been drawn around the little frontier town.

Two wagon loads of weapons were found in the homes of negroes today. Rifles were found hidden in hay mown cotton bins and even under the floors. Twenty negroes were arrested during the day and hurried to the county prison at Wagoner.

ENTIRE VALLEY OF CHANCES FINE FOR YANG TSE IS TAKEN FOURTH GAME TODAY

Shanghai Oct. 23—The occupation by the revolutionaries of two more important southern cities Shanghai and Man Chang is announced in messages reaching here. Their capture delivers into the revolutionists hands two important provinces.

The entire Yang Tse valley is gradually succumbing to the revolutionary infection. Four of China's provinces are now regarded under revolutionary influence—See Chuen, Hu Nien Hunan and Kiangsi.

It is generally admitted that unless the government succeeds, it will be a decisive blow to the adversaries the revolution will spread over a great belt across China.

Refugees of all nationalities continue flocking to Shanghai from points on the Yang Tse river. Commercial depression here is complete. A large number of Americans from various points have appealed to American Consul General Wilder for protection. The American cruiser Albany arrives tomorrow. The New Orleans is now at Nanking.

News from Hankow is delayed owing to the severing of telegraph lines.

CONDITIONS SEVERE AT CHI KIANG

Chi Kiang Oct. 23—Conditions here are serious. Looting by the famine-stricken population is fear.

The large Manchu settlement is in a panic.

INTERNATIONAL ACTION NOT NECESSARY

Berlin Oct. 23—Germany does not believe that the Chinese ultimatum calls for international action. It is believed the naval force in Chinese waters is sufficient for the protection of foreigners.

ENTERTAINMENT DIVERTS WANT TO SKIP WITH TRUNKS

Two negro women who have a strong desire for good trunks bought on the installment plan with a small amount paid down on their purchases have been outwitted by Manager G. J. Evans of the Major Furniture Company who usually keeps them spotless after they have attempted to work the boy out of his trunk. One of them was arrested yesterday after she had purchased a trunk in the trunk store of Major Evans. After trying a small amount of time to get out of it attempted to skip it, but the boy outwitted her and drove the other payment. Major Evans had his dealings with proprietor of the saloon. The boy, while the saloon was in business for a day, came along through the saloon and was a judge of the buyer's furniture. He showed up for the purchase and said that he didn't deserve to be treated as a customer. Major Evans asked him to take the trunk to the saloon and the boy said he would do so.

George Hall, another negro, who had bought a trunk from the saloon several months ago and immediately left for Miami, Fla., where he had a trunk made, also had a strong desire to skip it. While the saloon was in business for a day, he came along through the saloon and was a judge of the buyer's furniture. He showed up for the purchase and said that he didn't deserve to be treated as a customer. Major Evans asked him to take the trunk to the saloon and the boy said he would do so.

CHANCES FINE FOR

YANG TSE IS TAKEN FOURTH GAME TODAY

Philadelphia, Pa., Oct. 23—After having been postponed for the fifth time there is every likelihood to night that the fourth game of the world championship series between the New York Giants and the Athletics will be played tomorrow afternoon at 4 p.m. at the park. The sun which made its first appearance in this city since Monday October 16 shone brightly all day and added to a fine northeast breeze put the playing field in fairly good condition. The diamond is in far better shape than the outfield but a liberal use of hay splices cleared the outfield of the numerous small shrubs.

By 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon it is expected the outfield will be practically normal.

But teams took advantage of yesterday's weather to prepare for what is thought to be one of the most closely fought games of the series.

ATHLETES WORK HARD

Young's Stock bid his bid on the diamond at 5 p.m. last for two hours. The great majority of the men voted to bat, practice, Dr. Ruth Martin and Cooley's crew up the benders and the players went their regular to go at bat, putting an end to the ball to all corners of the field.

After the narration of the two victories thus far scored by the Athletics was the star in today's bat.

In his success as far as he is able to be, drew the ball into the enclosure between the right field wall and the right foul line, low wooden fence and the right field wall and later sent it well over the right field fence. Billie, who had been absent, attended his sister's funeral, took part in the practice and will be in tomorrow.

Pitchers Warm Up

While other members of the world championships were polishing up their batting eyes Bender and Frank were warming up with Thomas and Lapp on the receiving end. Both the Indian and the big left hander had plenty of speed and judging from the first two programs of their may be the Indians tomorrow. The two players of the Athletics however will not be slight either. Under such a will in the Indian and the big left hander will be in tomorrow.

It is known that both officials were in consultation with not only members of the civic commission of Jefferson county but also with the city commissioners. Whether they heard additional testimony or statement regarding the graft rumors cannot be stated but it is understood that Mr. Agree was with the visitors for some time.

Call For Veterans

Sons to Meet Issued

WHAT DID MENIER, LIVAS AND AGEE DISCUSS

Birmingham, Ala., Oct. 23—What did H. E. Evans legal adviser of Governor O'Neal, John D. McNeil, state over to Governor O'Neal and W. C. Age, chairman of the Jefferson county civic commission during the conference they held at the Morris Hotel Saturday evening?

This is a question very difficult to answer as the happenings to see the three together.

Moore, Lusk and McNeil left Sunday and I am present. I think they have gone to Montgomery.

Jack, a large court stenographer and a creation of the Jefferson county civic commission, who reported all the testimony in short and last week at the alleged graft investigation. I went to the transcriber to Mr. Evans in Montgomery. Mr. Stallings works 11 Friday night Saturday night and practically 100 days by writing the notes transcribed and had other stenographers assist him.

While I am in the default I am not in what the report of Mr. Evans will show. It is believed that the governor will issue a statement after receiving the report of Mr. Evans and his attorney will act.

It is known that Mr. McNeil came to Birmingham on state business Saturday and the M. E. Smith, Adjutant of Confederate Veterans, should hold this year at Montgomery on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 7 and 8, so far as he is able given the the reunion of the Alabama Division United Sons of Confederate Veterans and will be held at the same time and place.

Second. Exercises will be held at the City Council chamber, and the headquarters of the Hotel, 1000, 10th and the Jackson hotel where General Walter B. Jones, Adjutant of Confederate Veterans, will be in attendance with a registration book and badge.

Third. The division per capita tax is 10 cents for each member in good standing, and must be forwarded with muster roll of not less than ten members for each camp, accompanied by list of delegates to the division headquarters, promptly upon receipt of this order.

Fourth. The members whose muster roll has been received are entitled to one delegate for every member and one additional delegate for every fraction thereof five or more.

But every camp is entitled to at least two delegates whose credentials are to be endorsed by the commandant and adjutant of their respective camps.

Fourth. It has always been a beautiful custom to have the division brigades and camps represented by a speaker, aids of honor, characters and men of honor, and in the hope that the brigades and camps will be represented by a speaker, aids of honor, characters and men of honor, and in

ALTO BUYING.

Elbert Hubbard

The subject of good roads is a vital one to the autoists, everywhere throughout the world the owners of autos are agitating the subject.

In New York and various other States of the Union, the money received from automobile license is being used for road-building purposes. The sum to be raised each year for good roads will exceed two million dollars.

The Romans of old built their famous roadways for but one purpose, and that was to transport as many quickly from one place to another. But, regardless of the motives they taught the world a great lesson.

John W. Ley says, in his Journal, "I was in hiding of the truth that farmers who live along a good road grow rich, while those who are on a bad road are usually very poor." The farmers are not organized so as to pitch bad ones. To make a good road requires science, skill, money and wise foresight. Good roads are built for the future, quite as much for the nothing present.

Auto-owners are mostly men of status, and it can safely be said that all men of status are auto-owners. The type of a man who used to have a carriage and a coachman is not your typical autoist. The auto-owner is a man with fine records for ease and all soft luxury. His sad is motion.

He possesses initiative and is a good sportman. Wherever he goes he does things for bolder being on. Auto-owner he is a farmer and is fast becoming a lover of the country and a loving student of nature.

Thus does the auto transform the man.

The various automobile clubs are banded together so they can bring their influence to bear on legislation. The farmer is not a lobbyist, and his interests have been neglected. But now that the farmer and the auto-owner are grasping hands, this matter of good roads will not be allowed to suffer, faster or not. The old time Roman with his lust for conquest was the supreme type of road-builder. But now a broader, better, finer and stronger man is coming in on his high speed, and this is the autoist. He has all the enthusiasm of the Roman, and ten times his resources.

The boys with the autos are our modern "Invincible Youth Legion."

The last question for us to consider is the effect of the auto on the owner and user.

One thing sure, any man who has had a car never wants to get along without one.

I suppose it does not have to be shown that the auto is run out of doors. Thus it gives a play of fresh air that is not possible to him who hangs close to the steam heat.

Man is a movable air-plant. He thrives only when he is in the open sun, wind, storm—are all things to which he must become inured. The auto takes you out of the crowded city, out of the fumes of the noise-some streets. It gives you an fresh-air bath, and breathing more you think more, feel more, know more, live more.

To reside ten or twenty miles from business and take that trip night and morning would double the capacity of most men. The comfort in the "sinker" or "ladies' coach" absorbs a lot of bad air and silly conversation that have already been used.

The auto subdues conversation to things that should be said, and eliminates most of the vacuous mouthings. That is, it gives you rest.

As for the man who runs his own machine, there is demanded an exercise of eye and hand that develops judgment, skill, courage, and nerves coolness to your cosmic engine under difficulties.

All these things must in a generation have a decided effect on the man's race. The North American Indian developed his noble body when he was obliged to hunt, and he lost his noble qualities, in great degree, when he was put on the Reservation and made to stay there with every thing provided.

The man with an auto is no Reservation Indian.

He travels far and fast. He is pretty nearly a travel agent. He runs, hears, grows, bikes, banks and becomes. His face is browned by the king of the wind and sun. His pulse is full and even. His appetite is prodigious.

The allusion of power, and the sense of power coming from this thirty-horse-power or fifty-horse-power motor at his finger tips, gives him all the braver and his body craves. No man who really loves the merry music of the cutoff takes to strong drink.

The auto is a great move in but half of temperature. The man who runs a machine prizes his brain and rejoices in shiny bands, muscles of bended silk and armors of steel. Power is for the wobbly and weak. The auto will have none of it. Thus does the auto make for sanity, sound sleep, efficiency and length of days.

Within two years there has come about a very decided protest in public opinion against the auto as a scourge.

The pace is now becoming reasonable and moderate. The nervous novitiate is wearing off. To fly thru the land, run over chickens, kill dogs, scare horses and put wagons in the ditch is getting to be decided, but form. One reason is that the driver—owner or hired chauffeur—is now a sober man. He neither drinks nor overdrives. A lifted hand will stop any machine, anywhere this is today the rule. The natural goodness, decency and courtesy of strong and healthy men are being felt, for as we grow in health we strive in consideration for the rights of others.

The leveling of chauffeurs is a good thing, and is having its effect on character.

The reckless driver is now out of favor, and once he is a marked man and out forever. You must leave your records clean.

As for the extravagance of the people who buy a machine when they are not able to afford baby-bugs, a word is in order.

That many autos have been bought by those who have no business with one, is true.

A new invention, like a new reform, it bound to turn a lot of the heads and unthinking. The world still has a full supply of the chuckle-headed.

But there is one big protest against the extravagance in which we should bicker. It comes from Wall Street. Look out! The small traders in Wall Street are buying autos, and thus have ceased to game. The joy of the auto has replaced the joy of the Bucket-Shop.

The chances are being put into the financial ditch are replaced with the risks of the road. Take your choice—of two evils choose the lesser!

From an editorial in the "Millioner's Review" I see that the Milliners and dressmakers are suffering from this craze for the auto. One editorial says, "Many women who before were well-gowned are now content with khaki and little, next, homely automobile bonnets—anything that will keep the dust out of the hair. And when the husband lets his wife make choice between beautiful party gowns or a new machine, she votes for the machine without a word."

In the "Jeweler's Weekly," I find a similar voice to this effect. "The diamond trade is suffering from this extravagance in automobiles."

A Fifth Avenue tailor, recently interviewed, says, "The genuine, well-dressed gentleman is getting hard to find. Instead of clothes made to measure, everybody is buying a ready-to-wear suit at half price, saving the money for gasoline."

It will thus be plainly seen that there is going on an exchange of one extravagance for another, so the net loss isn't quite so bad as our pessimistic friends would have us think.

We saw on diamonds, picture-hats and party dresses, and this money goes into machines. Very well, let's go! The world is the gainer. It means tan, brown, sound sleep and good digestion against pale cheeks, weak eyes, and nerves that need a brace. That's more than this. The man with an auto takes the whole family with him, whereas, the old-time sport with his fast horse had a one-man wagon and went alone.

The wife along is a governor to the social engine. Sure! Don't buy an auto if you don't see how to pay for it. Debt is a rope to your foot, cocklebur in your hair, a fly in the cold cream of your beauty dope.

Keep within your financial speed-limit or Fate, like a country constable, will surely pinch you. There is lots of fun walking, yet. But extravagant and wasteful people have always lived. When Oliver Goldsmith dressed up the bailiffs and had them serve the feast, he was a fool as well as a poor. Look behind, also look in front and root your horn, before you turn the corner in debt.

Any man who can afford an auto should have one. Moreover, he probably will.

Also, anybody who insists on being extravagant and buying things he can't afford, will, until it comes to a standstill to a post on the streets all night, but that wasn't the case. The urban hotel clerks made such statements to dozens of other people, after you had secured the "only room they had left." The other doormen would not get other room too, showing that they had rooms, but used that old Reno dodge to fleece the public. Thousands of dollars were extracted from the pockets of the public by hoteliers which they would not get other room too, because they would be overcrowded, but knowing there were people who would pay three prices for a room rather than risk being run in by a sleepy policeman for loitering.

A hotel probably has the right to make any charges it sees fit, for the rooms it has, or the service it gives, but the Business Men's League, or some other Montgomery organization, should have a good quiet talk with those hoteliers before they send out any more red streamers about our state fair.

The people of Alabama will stand for decency once, and maybe twice, but they finally shy.

If the present hotel accommodations are not adequate to take care of a fair crowd in Montgomery, then it would help the town to do like we country towns do when we expect too much company to be entertained at the hotel; that is, work the residents of the town to see who can furnish a spare room, and for how much. Then the town wouldn't be cursed so much for being infested with a lot of slim-flamers and hold-up men.

Some of the hotels got $3 for rooms that are not bigger or better equipped than the寒伧 rooms of many barns in this town.

The whole city should not be blamed for the action of a few but they should feel enough interested in it to not let it happen again.

THE WRONG WAY TO GO ABOUT IT.

Governor O'Neal gives it out that damaging rumors have come to him in regard to the conduct of some of the officials connected with the state administration concerning alleged promises made to persons to the effect that they would be given a license to sell liquor in Jefferson County if they would buy stock in the Alamo Gas Company, or some such concern. The parties whose names are connected with the rumors are stated by the Governor to be P. G. Bowman, Leon McCord, J. G. Oakley and Dr. Fields. The Governor has ordered an investigation to be conducted—which is most commendable—but it strikes us he has gone at it in the wrong way.

His announced plan is to have his legal advisor, Hon. R. B. Evans, go to Birmingham on the 13th of October, establish headquarters and inquire all who know anything about the ugly rumors to come before him and give the public the benefit of their knowledge. Of course, nobody is going to do any such thing. The Governor is a lawyer and has been about the courts enough to know that it is a hindrance to get most men to testify before a grand jury even after they have been duly summoned and put under oath, and it is certain that no one is going to volunteer to establish the truthfulness of the rumors that are rife in regard to the gas and oil sales.

The method of ascertaining the truth or falsity of the matter adopted by the Governor will not satisfy the public. He should institute a better plan—one that will clear his administration of any suspicion whatever.—Greensboro Watchman

KNOWLEDGE OF FINANCIAL STRUCTURE.

The fair management of Montgomery hasn't filed its report on the finances, but we are sure it should be flattering.

Big crowds were in attendance every day, so it is said, and the attractions oughtn't to complain.

Neither should the merchants of Montgomery, nor the hotel and restaurant men.

It is on the hotels and restaurants where the greatest complaint came from out of town visitors.

It was a common practice at the two leading hotels to sell each man who inquired for a room, that they had just one left, which was either $8.50 or $10. The room might have been worth that much to a man who would likely have to stand by a post on the streets all night, but that wasn't the case.

The urban hotel clerks made such statements to dozens of other people, after you had secured the "only room they had left." The other doormen would not get other room too, showing that they had rooms, but used that old Reno dodge to fleece the public. Thousands of dollars were extracted from the pockets of the public by hoteliers which they would not get other room too, because they would be overcrowded, but knowing there were people who would pay three prices for a room rather than risk being run in by a sleepy policeman for loitering.

A hotel probably has the right to make any charges it sees fit, for the rooms it has, or the service it gives, but the Business Men's League, or some other Montgomery organization, should have a good quiet talk with those hoteliers before they send out any more red streamers about our state fair.

The people of Alabama will stand for decency once, and maybe twice, but they finally shy.

If the present hotel accommodations are not adequate to take care of a fair crowd in Montgomery, then it would help the town to do like we country towns do when we expect too much company to be entertained at the hotel; that is, work the residents of the town to see who can furnish a spare room, and for how much. Then the town wouldn't be cursed so much for being infested with a lot of slim-flamers and hold-up men.

Some of the hotels got $3 for rooms that are not bigger or better equipped than the寒伧 rooms of many barns in this town.

The whole city should not be blamed for the action of a few but they should feel enough interested in it to not let it happen again.

THE WRONG WAY TO GO ABOUT IT.

Governor O'Neal gives it out that damaging rumors have come to him in regard to the conduct of some of the officials connected with the state administration concerning alleged promises made to persons to the effect that they would be given a license to sell liquor in Jefferson County if they would buy stock in the Alamo Gas Company, or some such concern.

The parties whose names are connected with the rumors are stated by the Governor to be P. G. Bowman, Leon McCord, J. G. Oakley and Dr. Fields. The Governor has ordered an investigation to be conducted—which is most commendable—but it strikes us he has gone at it in the wrong way.

His announced plan is to have his legal advisor, Hon. R. B. Evans, go to Birmingham on the 13th of October, establish headquarters and inquire all who know anything about the ugly rumors to come before him and give the public the benefit of their knowledge.

Of course, nobody is going to do any such thing. The Governor is a lawyer and has been about the courts enough to know that it is a hindrance to get most men to testify before a grand jury even after they have been duly summoned and put under oath, and it is certain that no one is going to volunteer to establish the truthfulness of the rumors that are rife in regard to the gas and oil sales.

The method of ascertaining the truth or falsity of the matter adopted by the Governor will not satisfy the public. He should institute a better plan—one that will clear his administration of any suspicion whatever.—Greensboro Watchman

NEGRO DESPERADO
KILLS TWO MEN

STRONG POSSE HAS BLACK BUTTERFLY
BOUNDED IN SWAMP AND HIS DEATH EXPECTED

Tuscaloosa, Ala., Oct. 22.—Two deputy sheriffs dead, a third wounded in the leg and a negro killed, is the toll exacted by Frank Harrison, a negro, as a result of the attempt of Deputy Sheriff Tom Cooper to arrest him on an insignificant charge at Northport Sunday morning. The negro is now surrounded in a swamp at Sander's Ferry below Tuscaloosa on the Black Warrior river by a strong posse in which there are 12 members of the Warrior Rifles, and it is not expected that the negro will be taken alive.

Deputy Sheriff Tom Cooper went to Northport Sunday morning to arrest Harrison. The negro refused to be taken, and shot Cooper thru the heart. Death was almost instantaneous. Harrison escaped, and the posse was immediately telephoned to Tuscaloosa, and a posse was immediately organized. Hounds were telephoned for from Birmingham, and the dogs arrived on an early morning train.

Second Deputy Killed

The posse not awaiting him took up the trail. At daylight this morning Deputy Sheriff Brown Horton, a member of the posse, was killed by the negro and again this desperado made his escape, it being too dark for Horton's companions to see the negro.

The bullet from the negro's gun struck the deputy under the eye, penetrating the brain, and Horton fell back into the arms of T. Powers, his companion. The negro fired as the two men stepped from behind a bush on the side of the road.

News of the second killing was telephoned to Tuscaloosa and a party of twelve militiamen, members of the Warrior Rifles, joined the posse. Before their arrival, Harrison killed the negro on the road leading to Sander's Ferry, a swamp area six miles below Tuscaloosa, and wounded a member of the posse, Deputy Honby, in the leg.

Here the posse surrounded him and the hounds sent in to drive the man from the cover of the swamp. It is expected that he will be shot at sight by members of the posse.

The city of Tuscaloosa is much excited over the killing of the two deputy sheriffs, and many are joining the posse.

Buggies, Runabouts & Surries.

We sell more buggies--from actual count--than any firm in South-East Alabama. Our record shows that we have sold at retail--not including wholesale--a solid carload of buggies in ONE WEEK.

How Do We Do This?

1st. We and our connections, buy for SIX LARGE STORES. Quantity enables us to buy right.

2nd. We have been in this business (buggies and wagons) for Twenty-five years. Experience has taught us what to buy.

3rd. We have the largest stock to select from, variety giving our customers opportunity to select any style or finish.

4th. We are exclusive dealers in Buggies, Wagons and Harness and in order to cap your future trade, Our Guarantee Is Right.

Wagons.

We sell the "Mitchell" and the "Tennessee," in our judgement the best, based on experience in handling every make and brand of wagons sold in this section.

We have never known of a "Mitchell Wagon" tire having to be Re-Set.

The "Tennessee," although sold at a less price, has a guarantee that alone will sell it.

Harness

We are on the jobbers list in harness, having been placed there by the amount of goods bought, several years ago. This places us in position to sell at wholesale as well as retail. We would be glad to quote merchant's prices at any time and guarantee to save them money.

We believe that our Special No. 7 Single Buggy Harness is the best value ever shown in Dothan.

Come to see us in our New Quarters and make yourself thoroughly at home whether you want to buy anything or not, we will always be glad to see you.

MANY CASES SET FOR TRIAL

The court docket for the fall term of the Houston county circuit court, which begins here Monday, October 20, will be very heavy. Both civil and criminal dockets are heavy and the officers are being kept busy this week, recording serving subpoenas and transacting other official business.

On the calendar issued by Clerk Brown there are 177 cases of which 70 are set for criminal work. Out of the 70 criminal cases 22 are for retailing or blind diggers indicted by the last grand jury. There are also several other cases on the civil dockets that do not appear on the calendar owing to the fact that they were filed since it was printed.

TYPEDRIVERS IN CHINA

They Are Used There, but Not For the Native Language.

Typewriters are not made for use in nearly a hundred different languages, and they are sold all over the world, but there is still one great nation which, for a very simple reason, has no typewriters that write its tongue. That nation is China.

The English alphabet has twenty-six letters, the Russian thirty-five. The typewriter produced for the Italian market is the largest made, but no typewriter could be made that would begin to be big enough for the Chinese language, which has no alphabet but is represented by signs characters, of which there are about 40,000. Of the great number of words found in the English language only a small proportion are used for the ordinary purposes of speech and the same would be true as to the characters used in the Chinese language, but the number of Chinese characters commonly required is still far greater than could be put on any typewriter. So this nation of 400,000,000 people has no typewriter of its own tongue.

But that doesn't mean that no typewriters are sold in China. More and more Chinese are learning other languages besides their own and Chinese merchants and residents foreign merchants are typewriters and they are used in large quantities in many of the cities. They have had to learn and adapt the typewriter to the Chinese language, and various people are trying to sold to Chinese and to us typewriters.

John B. Walsh Dies of Heart

Failure After His Release from Prison

PARDON GRANTED NINE DAYS AGO AND BANKER HAD DIED SINCE THAT TIME

Chicago, Ill. Oct. 23.—John B. Walsh, former banker recently paroled from the federal prison at Leavenworth, died today of heart disease. His release came only nine days ago. He was serving a five year sentence for violation of the national banking laws.

Mr. Walsh had been in bed most of the time since his arrival here from Leavenworth October 16. He had been attended constantly by physicians.

Intermittent reports of Mr. Walsh's failing health during his incarceration had been dealt at the penitentiary. On his release it was plain he had aged and he gave up plans for resumption of his position as financial leader and took in his bed.

Death Granted Recently
Mr. Walsh was 71 years old. Death came just two days after he received a parole from the federal penitentiary where he had been sent on charges of misappropriating funds of the bank to the use of other enterprises.

Mr. Walsh's health failed soon after his entrance to the penitentiary in immediate movement to obtain his release on parole was begun by members of his family. Mrs. Mary A. Walsh and his two sons, Michael W. Walsh and John W. Walsh. At that time the remaining plaintiff in the penitentiary, said Mr. Walsh was suffering with hardening of the arteries.

After his release Mr. Walsh was brought to have been still further weakened by a long cold automobile ride from the prison to Kansas City. When he arrived at the home on October 16 Mr. Walsh was so ill that when he went to bed at once and remained there until his death.

Cave up All Hope

Most of the family announced that after the former banker reached a home he had given up all hopes of regaining his lost position and of the loss of friends and said he could spend his life at home.

Mr. Walsh, to whom he was said to be a nominal member of the government, according to the government, was the first friend of a small convict trust guaranteed by the government.

The former banker was surrounded by all the members of his family when he died. He was visited with friends. All but one steadily remained with him until eight o'clock when he never remained conscious. When death struck it was found he could not recover.

Death caused by a vascular disease of the heart muscle, said Dr. Joseph H. Lowe, who attended him. When Mr. Walsh returned from the penitentiary his muscles were swollen badly from the disease.

Walsh is survived by a widow, three daughters, Mrs. L. Blake, Mrs.

Walsh, Mrs. Orville Bullock and Mrs. Mary Walsh, and his two sons, John and Richard.

The question is to how long you are going to continue a sufferer from indigestion, dyspepsia or a sore stomach to misery a sufferer of hot noon when you begin taking Bloodin.

If your stomach is ailing in all active power why not help the stomach to do its work, not with drastic drugs but as an reinforcement of digestive agents such as are naturally at work in the stomach.

People with weak stomachs could in a little while be enabled to eat more with less effort. It is a relief to the stomach to have it not feel as though it is full of heat in the stomach no rebellion to the body, gas on stomach or flatulencies or undigested food. It is a relief to the stomach and to the body what you eat will not remain in the stomach your health will improve.

At the present time there are no products like this more beneficial and inexpensive dyspepsia for you. Bloodin will freshen you and make you feel like life is worth living.

Chief of Police Dugan Says Richeson Case No Guess Work or Surprise

ADMONITION AGAINST YOUNG FARMER WILL BE PRESENTED THURSDAY

Boston, Mass., Oct. 23.—Evidence against Clarence V. T. Richeson, the Cambridge Baptist minister, charged with the murder of Artie Lianell, the young music student, will be presented before the Suffolk county grand jury at a special session on Thursday of this week.

Chief Joseph Dugan, of the bureau of criminal investigation, announced today that in the "whole story of the case, as far, there is not a grain nor a surprise."

The police admitted today that there were a few details of the case upon which they need light, especially regarding the place of the meeting on Saturday between Richeson and Miss Lianell.

A more careful analysis of the stomach of the dead woman is being made by Professor Harry Whitney, of the Harvard Medical school, while several other features of the case upon which the state bases its case are being placed in shape for the grand jury.

The authorities have decided to compare the poison found in the girl's stomach with the crystals of potassium kept in stock by William H. Hahn, the druggist of Newton Center, who claims to have sold Richeson a supply sufficient to kill 100 persons.

Possible Complication
It was pointed out by medical experts today that if the chemist should find that the stomach of the dead girl contained a very much larger quantity of poison than Hahn says he sold Richeson or more than the fifteen grains specified in the complaint, a new complication would arise which might add much to the hopes of the defense.

The stomach of the girl is now in the custody of Professor Whitney of Harvard Medical school, who is making a chemical analysis. In his cell in the Charles street jail, Richeson remains calm. He has made no statement. He slept peacefully during the greater part of last night and awoke early. After eating a light breakfast he read the newspaper. Today he was allowed to receive visitors and his sister and law were arranged to see him.

His cell is between the cells of two Italians, who are awaiting trial on the charge of murder.

Former Justice J. H. Durbar and his son, Phillip H. Durbar, who he left retained by Richeson, and who are also attorneys for Moses Grand Edwards, father of Miss Violet Edwards who was to have married Richeson on October 31, have decided to make no statement. They have instructed Richeson to say nothing concerning the case.

Mr. Edwards also continued uncommunicative, except to reiterate that he believed Richeson innocent.

Morning worship at the Emanuel Baptist church, Cambridge, Sunday was without reference to the plight of the congregation's pastor, the Rev. C. V. T. Richeson. It had been reported that Mr. Richeson would resign his pastorate today, but no letter from him was forthcoming.

The apparent purpose of Dr. George Cross, who occupied the pulpit Sunday, was to divert the minds of the congregation as much as possible from the unhappy event while were responsible for the absence of the pastor, was indicated in his choice of a theme.

INGENIOUS SPEELS NO LONGER DANGEROUS

Dodson's Liver Tonic is a safe medicine to take the place of the powerful Calomel.

In the days when calomel was the only liver remedy, torpid liver, or a spell of biliousness was a serious thing. Calomel is a powerful mineral substance that opens the liver no matter how weak it is to do its work, but does nothing to strengthen the liver and a large dose—some times the usual dose—may cause irritation. Dodson's Liver Tonic is a balsam that strengthens the liver while making it do its work. It is entirely vegetable, pleasant to take, has no bad after-effects and is perfectly suited for children as well as grown people. You don't have to be careful what you eat.

Mr. Drug Company will fill you a bottle and guarantee it to give you perfect satisfaction. If it doesn't, you can get your money back simply by asking for it.

DANDRUFF AND ITCHING SCALP YIELD TO ZEMO TREATMENT

Why should you continue to experiment with salves, greasy lotions and fancy hair dressings trying to rid your scalp of germ life. They can't do it because they can't penetrate to the seat of the trouble and draw the germ life to the surface of the scalp and destroy it.

Why not try a PROVEN REMEDY? One that will do this. We have a remedy that will rid the scalp of germ life and in this way will cure DANDRUFF and ITCHING SCALP.

This remedy is ZEMO, a clean, refined, penetrating scalp tonic that goes right to the seat of the trouble and drives the germ life to the surface and destroys it.

A shampoo with ZEMO (ANTI-SEPTIC SOAP) and one application of ZEMO will entirely rid the scalp of dandruff and scurf. Do not bathe, but get a bottle of ZEMO today. It acts on a new principle and will do exactly what we claim for it.

Scalloped Oysters

Quoted by "Marie Marquet":
Crush and roll several handfuls of trifle crackers. Put a layer of the bottom of a buttered pudding dish. Wet this with a mixture of water, sugar and milk slightly warmed. Next, have a layer of oysters. Sprinkle with salt, pepper, and lay around bits of truffles. Then add another layer of crushed and rolled crackers, and so on until the dish is full. Let the top layer be of crumb, thicker than the rest, and cover it with butter. Pour over them, dice bits of butter, and brown by setting it on the upper portion of the oven or by holding a hot shovel over it.

Sewing Machines

Not much argument is necessary for a sewing machine in a home. . . . They mean less work, money saved on clothing, and better things to wear.

The main question is where to buy the machine. You don't believe in buying a cheap pair of scissors, do you? You know they could be poorly tempered, made of cheap steel so would not cut well and would break easily. Neither would you pay four or five dollars simply because they were a good brand.

Use the same judgment in buying a sewing machine. A cheap machine is a waste of money, is bound to get out of order, cannot do satisfactory work or last, still when you buy a machine from us, you pay nothing extra for our ability to sell you the best machine for the money or for the name or reputation of the machine itself. All we ask is a chance to demonstrate our machine before you buy.
